

2012 Summer Jobs!

LIFEGUARDS

The Northern Virginia 4-H Educational Center in Front Royal is seeking applicants for the 2012 season. CPR, First Aid, and Lifeguard certification required. Lifeguard responsibilities include maintaining a safe patron environment by observing and enforcing all pool rules and regulations, minimizing hazardous situations, responding quickly to emergencies, practicing diligent surveillance techniques, assisting in swim lessons and maintaining a clean pool and bathhouse. High school junior or senior is desirable, but must have completed 10th grade and be at least 15 years of age. Position requires weekend and holiday hours. Applications are available at the 4-H Center Office M-F 8-4:00 or downloadable from our website at www.nova4h.com and must be submitted by February 28th. Responsible individuals only need apply. Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Employer

CONCESSION OPERATORS

The Northern Virginia 4-H Educational Center in Front Royal is seeking applicants for the 2012 season. Concession responsibilities include providing excellent customer service, maintaining concession supplies, keeping a clean and orderly concession area, and maintaining accurate balance in the cash register. Must be at least 15 years old, dependable and honest. Must have reliable transportation to and from work. Position requires weekend and holiday hours. This is an excellent opportunity for first-time employment. Applications are available at the 4-H Center Office M-F 8-4:00 or downloadable from our website at www.nova4h.com and must be submitted by February 28th. Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Employer

For more Information:

Northern Virginia 4-H Educational and Conference Center
Avery Born, Assistant Program Director
aaborn@vt.edu
600 4-H Center Dr.
Front Royal, VA. 22630
(540) 635-7171